Fair Queen Pageant

The purpose of the Fair Queen Competition is to encourage the promotion of Agricultural Fairs and create better relations between youths and adults in both rural and urban settings.

The Greene-Dreher-Sterling Fair Queen is a high honor bestowed upon a young woman in the community who represents the outstanding qualities found in our youth today.

THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA WILL BE REQUIRED:

1. The pageant is open to any girl who is a resident of Wayne or Pike County.
2. Requirements are as follows:
 - a. She must be at least 16 years of age, by June 1 of current year and not over 20 by December 31st of current year.
 - b. She must have parent's or guardian's consent.
 - c. She must be single, never married, and have no children, not marry, or get pregnant during her reign.
 - d. She cannot be a former Fair Queen or a State Fair Queen contestant.
 - e. The Queen and the First Alternate must be available to attend the Pennsylvania State Fair Convention in January in Hershey, PA.
3. The contestants will be judged on:
 - a. Poise appearance, neatness, and ability to communicate.
 - b. Dress in casual outfit for interview by judges and a formal dress for the stage competition.
 - c. Submit a written essay of "What My Fair Means To Me" (300 words or less).
 - d. Give a 2 - 3 minute speech on a subject of her choice (i.e. special interests, hobby or career plans) on the day of the competition.
 - e. Answer a random question, giving her personal opinion.
4. Be required to make scheduled appearances as a Goodwill Ambassador for the Fair.
